LAURIE CARPENTER

The 1995 Hallmark staff is pleased to dedicate this yearbook to a teacher whose great teaching and wonderful personality have made her a truly deserving recipient of this distinction.

Miss Carpenter has taught physical education and health at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's for the past eleven years. She has coached volleyball, basketball, track, and soccer, and was instrumental in the organization of the physical education and athletic programs in 1984.

In addition to her teaching, Miss Carpenter has been actively involved in the school's interim program and various community activities.

Miss Carpenter's sincere dedication to the health, education, and welfare of all RHSM students have made her a favorite of many. Thank you!

Adopt-a-Block

The third annual RHSM Adopt-a-Block was held on the morning of September 17. About forty students and five faculty members volunteered to help clean up the yards around the school neighborhood. According to Dave Hall, dean of student Affaris and Adopt-a-Block organizer, "Adopt-a-Block is a community service project designed to offer assistance to our neighbors on Lincoln street and 10th East to show we care."

One thing that brings students back year after year is the bonding experience. A female member of the junior class was quoted as saying she enjoyed Adopt-a-Block because "everyone worked together for a common goal, and were proud of what they accomplished."

Adopt-a-Block is a good way to get off the house on a Saturday, and show that you care about the community. Due to its success, Mr. Hall hopes that this is one tradition that will be continued for years to come.

Lobsterfest

The third annual RHSM Lobsterfest was held October 15, 1994. Previously, money raised was used by the junior class; this year, all classes helped promote the fest, with the result that much more money was raised and it was used for all upper school classes.

According to Dave Hall, activities dean and organizer of the Lobsterfest, more money went to those grades which sold the most lobsters. And about 15 percent of the money went to various community services around Salt Lake City.

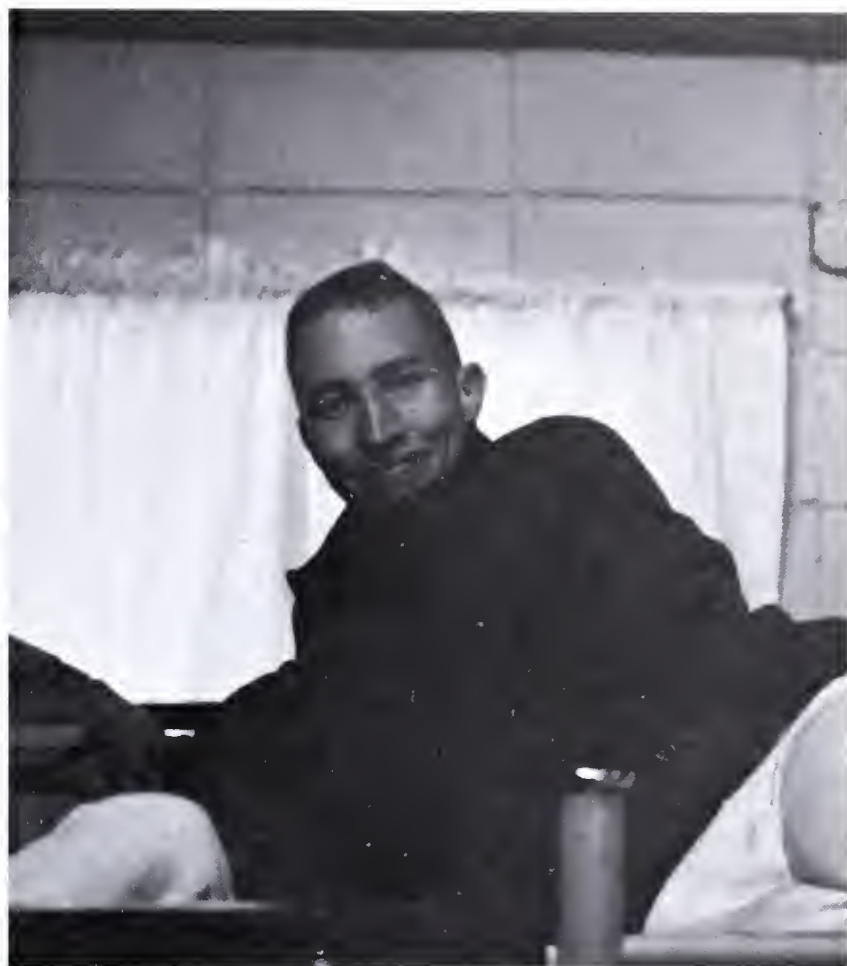

Senior Class Retreat

The senior class retreat was held in late September once again at Camp Lamondi in beautiful Upper Ogden Canyon. Was it coincidence or arranged temptation that the juniors were upstream only a half-mile? Be that as it may, junior class sponsors Carl Sturges, Frank Langheinrich, Bryan Pyper, and Rich Howe played a waiting game through the night, hoping to catch the seniors sneaking through the bramble bush to play their usual pranks on the sleeping underclass men and women. But where were these seniors? They didn't show, much to the disappointment of the faculty team, which saw its electronic surveillance gone for naught. Oh, that this group so early in the year could be thinking of college acceptances! So the myth of senior sneakiness was debunked, and left for another class to revitalize.

Junior Class Retreat

On the afternoon of Thursday, September 22, the juniors headed to Ogden Canyon for their class retreat. After a two-hour bus ride we arrived at our destination. First on the agenda, at least for the students, was choosing cabins. Following a short meeting the students dispersed to enjoy free time.

Last year's retreat was very structured, but this year students had the freedom to do what they wanted. As one student put it "We are old enough to do what we want," at least that's what most teenagers think. Some of the activities the students enjoyed were: football, softball, basketball, hiking, socializing, cooking, sleeping, and a few less appropriate activities. (For those participating in the less appropriate activities few can remember what went on!)

After the class retreat many people remarked on their memorable experiences. Often commented on were the "songs by the campfire," thanks to Tracy Gibbons, Brittne Stone, Alan Miller, and Brian Pyper. One purpose for the retreat was to bond as a class and to form new friendships. Many students felt that their "friendships were strengthened." The teachers also bonded with the students, creating a feeling of equality. Carol Kranes thought that it was "great how the 11th and 12th grades were able to mix in an informal, friendly and relaxed environment."

Overall, the class retreat was a great experience for everyone. Class retreats are a valuable part of high school life at RHSM. (If by chance you enjoyed the spaghetti sauce, ask Andy Hatch how cinnamon tastes in it.)

Sophomore Class Retreat

The fun began as the Sophmores loaded the buses and headed towards Camp Pine View on the 22nd and 23rd of September.

The various games united the students new and old. "I met a lot of new people, including my new-found friend Julia Alexandra," said Xista Garcilazo.

Both girls and boys, young and old, joined together on the field to play rowdy games of frisbee and baseball.

"Baseball and frisbee were the best! YES!!!!" commented Jamie Agraz enthusiastically.

"I came as a boy and left as a man," remarked Jeb Axland proudly.

"When night rolled around, we enjoyed apple cider, hot chocolate, smores, trail mix, and fresh apples, while the boys gave all of us girls soothing and relaxing massages," explained Lauren Stevens.

"The food was great," said Clover Sanders, and added a special thanks to our class mothers who provided the food.

Even though Carrie Thompson was slightly injured by a terrible knee problem, she told us that she was able to visually enjoy the sports activities while soaking up the rays. She was able to return home with a nice golden tan.

Freshman Class Retreat

Once again the freshman class was bussed to the High Uintahs for an incredible five days of retreating. The weather this year was much improved over previous years, which resulted in many happy campers. The class was divided into groups to work on biology projects, which pointed out the fragility and delicacy of the high alpine environment. Everyone left the awe-inspiring mountains with a renewed sense of awareness for the landscape and its contents. The class also felt closer together as the week's events came to a close.

Musical

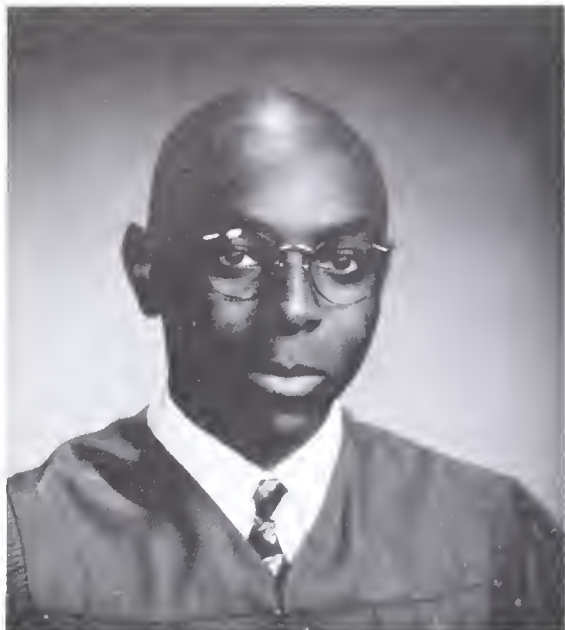

Artstart

Artstart was a great success again. Melinda McIlwaine led African Dance. Tony Larimer taught Acting. Michelle Powell Harvey taught Clown Techniques. Lucy Fairchild taught Furniture Painting. Dorothy Solomon led the Fiction Workshop. Dr. Donald Carpenter taught the Gospel Singing workshop, Dylan McCullough and Mark Anthony Taylor taught Stage Combat. John Herron and George Grant taught Primitive Instruments. Meredith Moench taught Monoprints. Stained Glass was taught by Lily Harvey. Puppetry was taught by Tobin Atkinson. Fly Tying was taught by Steve Schmidt. Photography was taught by John Schaefer. Bookmaking was led by Madelyn Garrett. Hip Hop danced was led by Rosie Banchemo. Jewelry Making was taught by Frances Garrett. Ceramics was taught by Lorie Mehan. Jayne Luke taught Musical Theater.

Braid Mania

What a pass!

The girls ended their season with a sixth place finish at state, winning the consolation championship. They took second at regions with a close game against ICS. Their overall record was 14-10 and their division record was 6-6. The varsity team consisted of Alli Miller, Maggie Moore, Megan Williams, Kelly Tuohig, Carrie Littlefield, Alexandra Falias, Alisa Methner, Emily Barrett, Kristin Hilger and Therese Erick. The proud coaches were Laurie Carpenter, head coach; Kendra tomsic, assistant coach; Kathy Howa , freshman coach. The junior varsity team included Alisa Methner, Katrina Easton, Jessica Barry, Therese Erick, Kristin Hilger, Lauren Stevens, Tia Masters, Jill Snyder, Jenna Gelegitis. The junior varsity team's record was 8-4.

Baseball

The baseball team had a great fall season. Their record was 8-2, leading them to a tough state semi-final game against Enterprise. Their final record was 8-5. The Junior Varsity team had a record of 1-2. The team players included: Howard Horn, Tyler Dennis, Bernard Bendinger, Mohammed Hall, Cody Scarning, Mark Langheinrich, Doug Jensen, Luke Flockerzi, Mike Billings, Tony Ashton, Mark Long, Jeff Armington, Doug Reid, Rex Cornwell, Jeff Miller, Luke Muir, and Adam Senekjian. The coaches were Willy Ambos, Frank Langheinrich, David Retton, and Rich Morales.

Cross Country

The 1994-95 cross country team had much to brag about. Led by coaches Gaylynn Mooney and Shirley Durtschi, the team moved effortlessly through the season, which started prior to school's opening in late August. The typical course was 3.2 miles (5 kilometers) in length, enough to give anyone faint of heart second pause before plunging into the pack.

The girls (especially Ellie Culp, Elyse Vaccaro, Anami Sheppard, Anna Snipes, Leah Fox, Tracy Manaster, Kerstin Forsythe, and Aloe the Frog) took third in state. The boys took fifth: Mathieu Shrontz, Nate Thomas, Ian Cain, Greg Burst, Trevor Miller, and Tristan Moore.

Runners are proud, invincible. There is a sense of community that makes the long hours and hard miles worth it, and when you see your teammates up ahead, all is fine.

Rowmark

This was one of the best years ever for the Rowmark program at RHSM. Team results, individual finishes, and personal improvement had never been so great. This year Rowmark had over seventeen first-place finishes with racers like Jessica Lyle winning the Grand Targhee downhills, Michelle Parry winning the Mark Miller Subaru slalom, and Nanako Bannai winning the Jackson Hole downhills. Head coach Olle Larrson says "this year's team has exceeded expectations. Rowmarkers have really proven themselves both in their divisions and in the country." Team members were Christine Stephens, Rowena Bright, John Miller, Charlie Oys, Josh Kellerman, Ashley Rothwell, Nanako Bannai, Jessica Lyle, Eric Turney, Peter Shaffer, Mike Pligavko, Max Doilney, and Alex Shaffer and Oliver Fritsch, alumni training with the team.

The women's basketball team had its greatest season ever. The overall record was 19-5 and the league record was 10-2. The year ended with a second place in the Region 14 tournament and seventh at State. The varsity team consisted of Alli Miller, Annie Chamberlain, Alexandra Foliass, Hilary Amoss, Megan Williams, Kendall Sumner, Carrie Littlefield, and Sarah Hogle. The junior varsity team included Sara Hames, Reshma Shetty, Molly Doilney, Heather Edwards, Caroline Putz, Leah Fox, Sierra Burton, Jenna Gelegotis, and Heather Racine. The head coach was Lori Dall, who was assisted by Wendi Warhurst, Kim Free, and Jill Chapman. The manager was Maggie Moore.

Squirrel Boy

The '94-'95 men's varsity basketball team concluded their season with an overall record of 20-6 and a league record of 8-4. They were the Region fourteen champions and they placed fifth at State. The varsity team roster read Chris Alexis, Bob Lonergan, Howard Horn, Michael Thomas, Willy Felton, Shashank Virkar, Russell Mallinckrodt, Mohammed Hall, Michael Billings, Cody Skarning, Mark Lanheinrich, and Luke Flockerzi. The junior varsity team included Mohammed Hall, Cody Skarning, Mark Lanheinrich, Mark Long, Doug Jensen, Scott Driggs, Rex Cornwell, Andrew Dagleish, Jeff Miller, James Balsterholt, David Dolan, Travis Otten, David Billings, Andrew Erdmann, Mike Stewart, and Mike Katzourakis. The head coach was David Retton, the JV coach was Will Ambos, and the Freshmen coach was Jonathan Voorhees. Their manager was Brian Hartman.

Swimming

This was the first year that Rowland Hall-St. Mark's fielded a swimming team, and the squad managed to do very well. Practice was at the new Steiner Aquatic Center near the University of Utah campus; was it the proximity to all that talent, or just the superb coaching that resulted in improved times and wonderful team morale?

The team is made up of a high percentage of underclass men and women. Is it any wonder that one of the Judge Memorial coaches was overheard saying, "In a very few years Rowland Hall-St. Mark's will have one of the best swimming teams in the state, at any level!"

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, under the direction and sponsorship of Maritza Ascencios, celebrated its first year at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's with several memorable events (including this photo session!) The club is healthy and full of interest, as the frivolity of the members is apparent here. Next year promises to be even better!

Officers for the Spanish Club are Lisa Smith, President; Katrina Easton, Vice President; Kristina Reeder, Secretary; and Sarah Stolebarger, Treasurer.

The other club members are Anna Erick, Alisa Methner, Megan Williams, Beth Nuzzo, Jessica Probert, Richelle Skaggs, Carrie Littlefield, Brooke Warburton, Kendall Sumner, Tia Masters, Kree Cole McLaughlin, Nicole Larson, Brittne-Aspen Stone and Mohammed Hall.

French Club

Many members of The French Club had a wonderful time touring Paris and the countryside of France over Spring Break. The goal of the club this year was to raise money for this trip. They accomplished this by selling candy and other goods in a store by the cafeteria. They also hosted a French dinner for their parents. They engaged in activities such as cooking for the homeless and other community service projects. The French Club is the biggest language organization in the school and it had the largest number of participating members this year.

Latin Club

German Club

Members of the 1994 - 1995 German club were: Lindsay Alder, Del Anderson, David Billings, Catelyn Christian (Treasurer), David Cook, Ovidiu Daminescu, George Deyzel, Kerstin Forsythe, Anthony Gill, Noah Hoagland, Phill Holty, Howard Horn (President), Jaime Ipson (VicePresident), Jenny Lohman, Tom Lombardi, Scott McCusker, Helen Michael, Marilee Miller, Adria Muir, Travis Otten, Robin Pardey, Sarah Ranger, Adam Senekjian, Anna Snipes, Lexie Stang (Secretary), C.J. Whittaker, and Emily wood.

The 1994-95 German club, in cooperation with the German national Honor Society, was involved in many educational cultural events throughout the year. In addition to such annual events as Oktoberfest and a program to help Utah Navajo Elders, several members visited Berlin in the spring. This year's German Club seems to have fulfilled its mission of providing an exciting, educational arena in which students are able to learn about both German language and culture.

National Honor Society

*Once upon a time,
There was a group,
Who left their books
To serve others' soup.
They sacrificed Saturdays
To tutor and paint;
Proving what well-rounded:
Nerds they ain't. . .*

The focus of the 1994-95 National Honor Society was on volunteer service within the school and the community. Under the guidance of Karen Quackenbush, the organization was involved in such projects as cooking for the soup kitchen, organizing a clothing drive for Crossroads Urban Center, and helping prepare for Artstart and tutoring Tibetans. All the members of this organization maintain high academic standards and pursued community service prior to being selected.

National Honor Society officers:
President, Aliette Frank; Vice President, Sten Hoidal; Secretary, Yulee Choe.

National Honor Society members for 1994-95 were Gregory Burst, Ian Cain, Jeanette Carpenter, Megan Cassity, Tacy Conard, David Cook, Bram Dolcourt, Tyler Dennis, Anna Erick, Brandon Garcia, Adam Goldstein, Nick Greenwood, Andrew Hatch, Jaime Ipson, Larissa Jester, Sage Lazar, Carrie Littlefield, Bob Lonergan, Vanessa Lowe, Russell Mallinckrodt, Sam McConnell, Alan Miller, Trevor Miller, Duncan Moench, Beth Nuzzo, Jason OwYoung, Libby Ramsey, Geeta Shaw, Kendall Sumner, Kelly Tuohig, Kathleen Tunderman, Jeremy Wechsler, Megan Williams, and Emily Wood

Although sporting a smaller roster this year, the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's debate team continued to set the standard for excellence in the state and around the western region. Led by coach Frank Langheinrich and assistant coach Dennis Jolley, the debaters qualified to compete in the 3-A state championship and earned many awards and trophies throughout the season. Jolley also coached the middle school debaters (pictured here). The RHSM debaters clearly showed (especially in competition at Stanford and Berkeley) that it can compete nationally in both Lincoln-Douglas and Individual events. Coach Langheinrich: "We've never had this many people break at a national tournament."

Student Council

The 1994-1995 Student Council

Three strikes and you're out!

This year's student council, advised by George Henry, has lead our student body through another great year at RHSM. Student council has improved comunity lunch, school spirit, and attendance at sporting events. The RHSM prefects (Marley Bramble, Tyler Dennis, Jeanette Carpenter, Pat Halliday, and Larissa Jester) improved the school by making the new student commons more comfortable and scenic. They also sponsored school events such as Battle of the Bands, Battle of the Classes, and Student Council Corner in the Gazette. Little-known but greatly appreciated help came in the form of hosting Artstart artists and guiding prospective students and parents around school during open houses.

Yearbook

Editor Geeta Shah

Where did I put that one of Doc and all the lasagne?

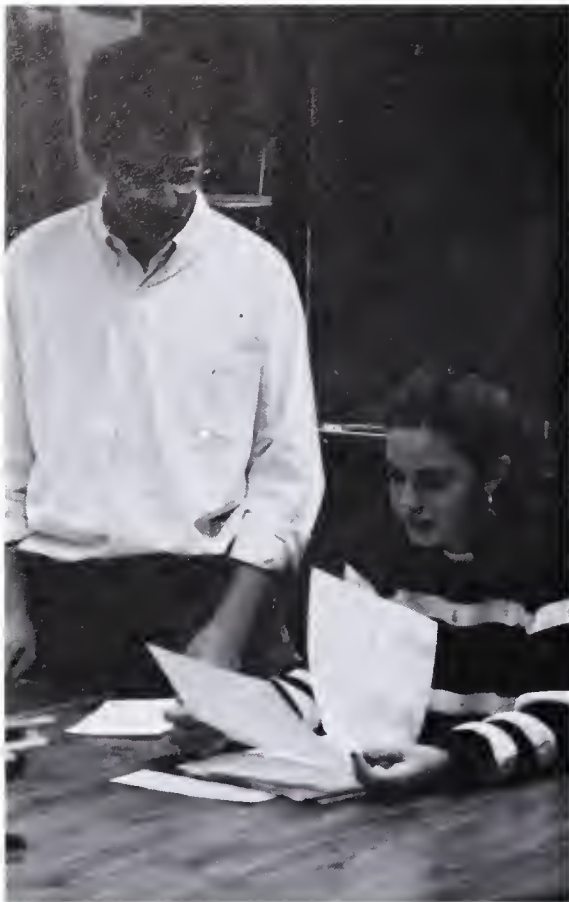

This year the yearbook staff worked hard for two trimesters. Individual groups of two or three worked non-stop to produce the Hallmark. By taking pictures at all the school-sponsored events, the yearbook staff was able to capture the spirit and atmosphere of the 1994-1995 Rowland Hall school year.

Under the supervision and teaching of Richard Howe and editor Geeta Shah the students were able to flourish in the art of yearbook design while still having fun. The staff wishes to thank the many volunteer photographers and reporters around the school and its community for helping out in so many ways. Without them it would have been much more difficult. We hope you like the result!

"Hmmm . . . where's the party tonight?"

Newspaper

Hard at work.

Brothers, say hallelujah.

Our fearless leaders

"Thanks to the hard work and dedication of this year's staff, we have, for the first time in Rowland Hall history, an issue of the Gazette on the very first day of school," complimented advisor Rich Howe at morning convocation on August 31st. Under the extraordinary journalistic know-how and the impressive leadership of editors Dave Cook, '95 and Beth Nuzzo '96, the Gazette soared to new heights this year, surpassing the expectations of everyone involved.

Along with a first-day issue, The Gazette came out more often over the course of the year, an especially impressive feat when one considers that this year's Gazette staff was one of the smallest in Rowland Hall-St. Mark's history.

"It took some late nights," explained Dave, "but the results were worth it. I hope we've set a standard for next year's staff to follow."

"Working on the Gazette has taught me a lot about organization and getting people to do what they say the will," added Beth, who believes that next year's paper will be as good as ever. Staff included Ethan Bergvall, Dave Billings, Bram Dolcourt, Mike Landesman, Tom Lombardi, Marissa Meli, Evan Ruffinengo, Jake Semmel, Antara Kanth, and Yasamin Hosseini.

Mosaic

The 1994-95 Mosaic staff has built upon the award-winning magazines of the past years. Shelby Raebeck and Rich Howe guided this year's staff to new heights. The hard work of the writers and artists has helped the Mosaic maintain its high standards of artwork and literature. "The Mosaic has surpassed our highest expectations," complimented Shelby. The Mosaic is a showcase of the incredible talent contained at RHSM. "It took two of us to replace Carol Kranes as Mosaic advisor. Now that we have a year under our belts we feel like we are on a roll. The quality of the artwork and writing makes our job a lot easier," remarked Rich. This year's staff writing staff includes : Nate Thomas, Sarah Francis, Jessica Berg, Megan Cassity, Duffy Gallivan, Julia Jepperson, Antara Kanth, Helen Michael, Evan Tendick, Maggie Behle, Sierra Burton, Emily Hodgson-Soule, Chad Miller, Colin Motoki, Adam Senekjian, and Mike Stewart.

Middle school dance company.

The 1994-95 Dance Company was the largest in recent years. Directed by Joan Kingston, this year's company flourished. The company performed two pieces in the Winter Concert at Brighton High School and gave a spectacular performance, and was involved in the many fine arts concerts throughout the year. This year's spring dance concert contained a fabulous myriad of talent and dedication. The dance company brought in many new ideas with guest choreographers. The talents of Todd Allen and Mike James to name a few. Dance has made appearances during morning meetings, the human rights day, and the holocaust chapel. The 1994-1995 Dance Company included: Alison Axland, Meredith Berg, Neeta Bidwai, Marley Bramble, Megan Cassity, Tacy Conard, Amanda Ford, Sarah Francis, Gina Hansen, Nicole Harms, Larissa Jester, Katherine Marlowe, James Pierce, Lisa Smith, Sarah Stolebarger, Betsy Tohinaka, Kathleen Tundermann, Kyle Walton, and Thomas Westphal. The success of these performances was due to the hard work and determination of this year's dancers.

Middle School Interim

This year the middle school held its interim in the fall rather than in the spring with the upper school. Organizers Leslie Stone and Liz Paige decided to tie it in with the middle school's fall curriculum which focused on the American West.

Students read several novels set in the West as an introduction to this subject and then had the opportunity to visit areas similar to the settings in the novels.

The trips included: Rock & R Ranch, Western Water River Trip, Park City Excursion, Camping in Great Basin, All Girls Camping, Mesa Verde/Arches Camping, and Archaeology Trip. The overall favorites were the Western Water River interim, the Park City interim and the All Girls Camping in Central Utah.

A second factor in the decision to have interim in the fall was the chance to develop better student to teacher relations early in the school year. A notable success in this effort was the Girls Camping with both teachers and students cheering the unique experience it provided.

A third bonus of the fall interim was the availability of faculty for each trip. A separate interim meant the middle school faculty did not have to share interim responsibilities with the upper school.

The first year of a separate interim was a sterling success and the Middle school intends to continue this practice in the future.

Middle School Basketball

SIXTH GRADE GIRLS

The sixth grade girls' basketball team was coached this year by Kendra Tomsic. They played a tough season but they lost an armfull of games just by a few critical points. These losses placed them seventh in the league and stripped them of thier eligibility in the W.A.C tournament. Andrea Graves, Liza Springmeyer, and the rest of the team picked up their play but were eliminated in the final round.

SIXTH GRADE BOYS

The sixth grade boys basketball team had an outstanding season!! They were coached by middle school science and debate teacher, Dennis Jolley. Jesse Goldsmith and John Drake were the top scorers for the basketball team. Winning many of their games, the team had an average of twenty-one points per game over opposing teams. The team's hard work and dedication payed off with an excellent season.

Middle School Basketball

SEVENTH GRADE GIRLS

The seventh grade girls basketball team was coached by Laurie Carpenter. After taking third place in the W.A.C., unified with the eighth grade girls team, the team went on to the W.A.C. tournament. The seventh graders gave it their all along with players Danielle Putz, Taylor Christensen, and Tara Tribe but were eliminated in the second round of their tournament.

SEVENTH GRADE BOYS

The boys had a successful basketball season which was coached by Shelby Raebeck. The team's top scorers were Chris Hill and Andrew Tendick, a star guard and center combination for the team. David Sandberg also contributed to the team's unheralded success. Congratulations, boys, to a job well done!!

Middle School Basketball

EIGHTH GRADE GIRLS

The eighth grade girls basketball team was coached by Nancy Robinson and took third place in the W.A.C., united with the seventh grade girls. This led them to the W.A.C. tournament. On their own, but powered by players Jenny Rasmussen, Abby Thomas and Kaebah Orme the eighth graders placed first in their W.A.C. tournament.

EIGHTH GRADE BOYS

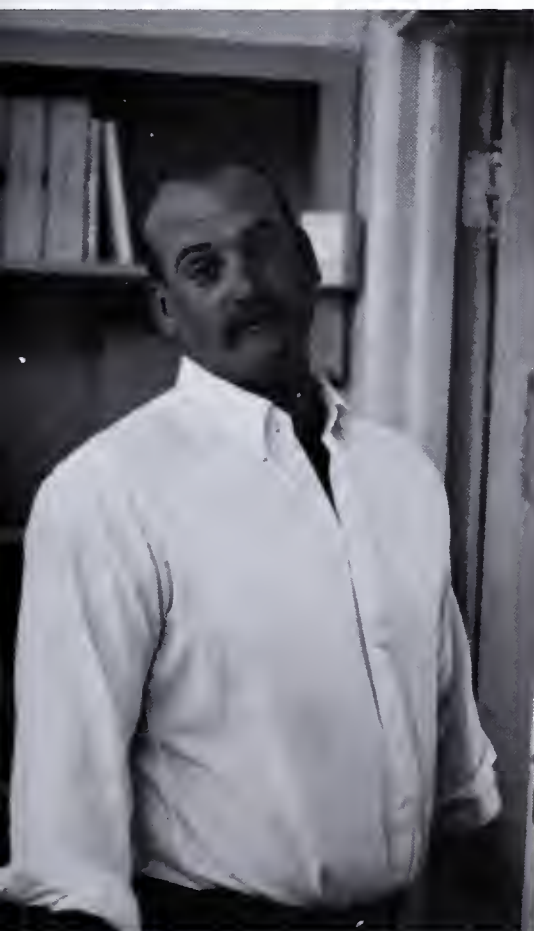

The eighth grade boys basketball team had a successful season with six wins and one loss. Coached by Mark Etheridge, they entered the WAC tournament and beat Christ Lutheran in the first round, ICS in the second round, and lost, by one point, to Redeemer, the regular season champs. The seasons offensive leaders were Sean McKay, Justin Klein-Clark, Tommy Sharp and Austin Riter. A dedicated group of players worked hard to improve their skills and bring continued success to the basketball program.

Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.
You're on your own.
And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

Out there things can happen, and frequently do,
to people as brainy and footsy as you!

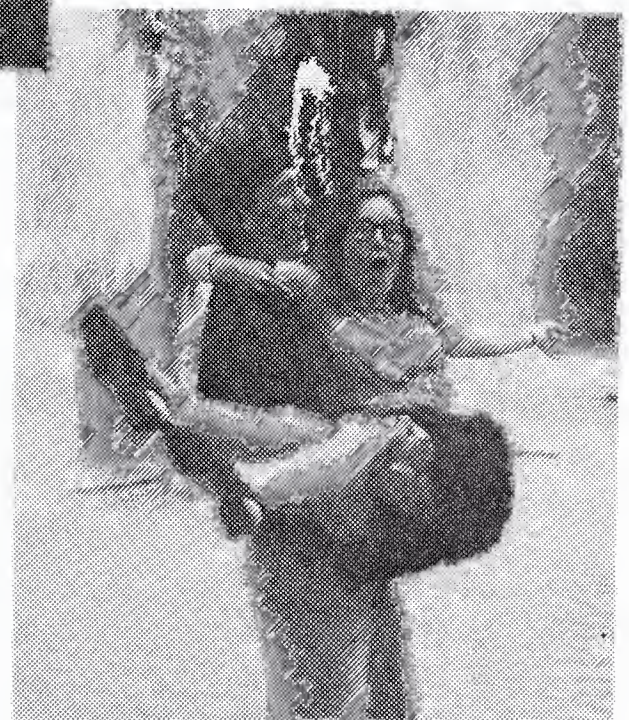

Oh, the places you'll go!
There is fun to be done!
There are points to be scored.
There are games to be won.
And the magical things you can do
with that ball,
will make you the winningest winner of all.

Fame!

You'll be famous as famous can be,
with the whole wide world watching
you win on TV.

Though your arms may get sore and your sneakers may leak,
on and on you will hike.
And I know you'll hike far and face up to your problems
whatever they are.
So be sure when you step, step with great care and great tact and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.
Just never forget to be dexterous and deft.
And never mix up your right foot with your left.
And will you succeed?
Yes! You will, indeed!
